AGREST'S VIEWS AND COMMENTS ON 2021/2022 COUNTRY'S BUDGET: IS THERE ANYTHING TO SMILE AT FOR AGRICULTURE SECTOR?

AGREST has the pleasure to invite you to our 2021/2022 Country's Budget analysis, to take place on Monday 14th June, 2021, where we will have opportunity to reflect and review the 6th Phase Regime First Budget as was presented by the Minister of Finance and Planning, Hon. Dr. Mwigulu Nchemba (MP).

The theme of our discussion is '2021/2022 Country's Budget: Is There Anything to Smile at for Agriculture Sector?'

Reflections will be on the implication of the budget on crop, livestock and fisheries sectors and who is the loser and winner as per budget. We will share insight on the effect of the budget on the need of stimulating domestic consumption after the pandemic. Furthermore, its impact on Tanzania's involvement in the regions agricultural trade, global value chain linkage and if there is any hope for value addition among indigenous agro-processors in the country.

OUR EXPERTS

1. Khamaldin Daud Mutabazi, PhD –Associate Professor in Food System at Sokoine University of Agriculture, Tanzania. His discussion will be on '2021/22 country's budget and demand stimulation for agri-food items in domestic market'
